on a C. S. comer, sent by this government.

Such was the outcome of a conference between Secretary of State Lansing, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, and Albert Lucas, executive secretary of the Central Jewish Relief committee Wednesday in Washington.

Heartrending appeals having come from Palestine for medicine and the Central Relief committee learning that there was practically not an ounce of medicine at any time and especially that there was no quinine in the whole country, the committee put itself into communication with Jacob H. Schiff, treasurer of the American Red Cross society, to find means to send a sup-ply. After Mr. Schiff had arranged with the American Red Cross to send the necessary medicine and to ship it
